Mr. Rajnish Gupta for the applicant-petitioner No.6 Hansram.

Heard learned counsel for the parties on the application for correction.

This application has been filed seeking correction of the name of one of the accused petitioners, i.e. accused-petitioner No.6 in the order dated 20/6/2007 wherein while granting bail to him alongwith other co-accused, he was described as Hansraj S/o Sirmohar Singh instead of Hansram S/o Sirmohar Singh.

Learned counsel for the applicant-petitioner submits that originally when the bail application was moved before the Court of Sessions Karauli, his name in the cause title of the appliation was described as Hansraj S/o Sirmohar Singh and correspondingly in the rejection order passed by the trial court dated 1/6/2007 also his name was described as Hansraj instead of Hansram, which is why he has moved this application for correction in the name. In support of his aforesaid contention, learned counsel for the petitioner has produced copy of the bail application which he moved before the Court of Sessions Karauli. This mistake was noticed by the learned court below when petitioners furnished bail bond alongwith surety bonds before the said court on 23/6/2007 and learned Sessions Judge on application of the petitioner, has directed his name to be corrected as Hansram instead of Hansraj in the original order passed by him on 1/6/2007.

In view of the facts stated above, the application for correction is allowed and name of accused-petitioner No.6 Hansraj S/o Sirmohar Singh is directed to be substituted as “Hansram S/o Sirmohar Singh“. Hence, in the order dated 20/6/2007, name of accused-petitioner No.6 shall be read as “Hansram S/o Sirmohar Singh“ instead of Hansraj S/o Sirmohar Singh. He is directed to submit his bail bonds with sureties as per order earlier passed on 20/6/2007.

With the above directions, the application stands disposed of.
